

Board Elections Report

Submitted Wednesday, September 27, 2017

By Ross Rowe, Board Elections Chair

The ACM Midwest Region Board conducted an election in July and August to fill four seats on its Board of Directors.

Nominations closed on Wednesday, July 12, 2017, during the Annual Meeting in Minneapolis, MN. The nominees for the four seats were the following: Tina LeGarde, Mary Van Sickle, Jason Liggett and Ryan VanLanduyt.

The nominees sent short bios and statements to Election Chair Ross Rowe on or before Wednesday, July 19.

ACM Midwest Board President Tina LeGarde opened the voting process on Wednesday, July 26, and closed it on Monday, August 21. The election took place on-line, via Survey Monkey.

Of the 35 voting members in the ACM Midwest Region, 12 voted (34.3%). The resulting votes made official the following board members for the four open seats. Each will serve a two-year term.

- Tina LeGarde
- Mary Van Sickle
- Jason Liggett
- Ryan VanLanduyt

Congratulations to our new and returning board members!
