

Board Elections Report

Submitted Wednesday, September 12, 2018

By Jason Liggett, Board Elections Chair

The ACM Midwest Region Board conducted an election in July and August to fill five seats on its Board of Directors.

Nominations closed on Wednesday, July 11, 2018, during the Annual Meeting in Baltimore, MD. The nominees for the four seats were the following: Javier Cedillo, Jim Knightwright, Zipporah Mesesi, Mike Rennels and Ross Rowe.

The nominees sent short bios and statements to Election Chair Jason Liggett on or before Wednesday, July 18, 2018.

ACM Midwest Board President Tina LeGarde opened the voting process on Wednesday, July 25, 2018 and closed it on Friday, August 24, 2018. The election took place on-line, via Survey Monkey.

Of the 35 voting members in the ACM Midwest Region, 17 voted (48.6%). The resulting votes made official the following board members for the five open seats. Each will serve a two-year term.

- Javier Cedillo
- Jim Knightwright
- Zipporah Mesesi
- Mike Rennels
- Ross Rowe

Congratulations to our new and returning board members!
